

Alexandria P. Staubach

aps@mtfn.com

Alexandria P. Staubach is an attorney in Meissner Tierney's litigation practice group. She represents businesses and insurers in a wide variety of matters, including contractual disputes and insurance coverage.

Alexandria brings extensive courtroom experience, having successfully argued dozens of jury trials and dispositive motion hearings. In addition, she previously worked as a clerk for a preeminent arbitrator focused on employment and commercial matters in the Pacific Northwest. After receiving a B.A. in History as well as a certificate in Religion and Conflict at Arizona State University, Alexandria went on to get her J.D. from the University of Louisville, Brandeis School of Law in 2016. Alexandria spent her last year of law school as a visiting student at Denver University, Sturm College of Law, where she competed in the William C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot as a representative for Denver University. Before coming to MTFN, Alexandria worked extensively with Colorado's 4th Judicial District Attorney's Office conducting over 30 trials in a wide range of matters

Honors

- The Office of the District Attorney 4th Judicial District: the "Hitch Award" for exemplary leadership, 20+ Felony Trial Days in 2018 recognition.
- Denver University, Sturm College of Law Interschool Vis Cup: First Place Oralist
- Benjamin A. Gilman International Study Scholarship
- Critical Language Studies: Turkish

Professional Organizations

- + Practices
- + Education

- Multnomah Bar Association: Member
- Junior League of Portland: Member
- Educating Children of Color Summit: Scholarship Chairwoman
- Junior League of Colorado Springs- Benjamin S. Wendelken Inn of Court: Member
- Denver University's English Language Center:
Conversation Partner with Women from Saudi Arabia,
Qatar, and Libya
- El Paso County Bar Association: Young Lawyer Division
- Colorado Bar Association